To the Worshipful the County Court of Lee

The bill of Complaint of John H. Allen, Administrator de bonis non of the estate of Benjamin Dickinson Deceased, who sues for the benefit of Benjamin D. Martin, respectfully represents; that his intestate, the said Benjamin Dickinson sold to William C. Dickinson, in their lifetime a certain tract or parcel of land, lying near to & north of the Town of Jonesville in Lee County Virginia, containing from 20 to 30 acres, (the boundaries of which tract or parcel of land is herewith filed as part of this bill, (marked A) The said William C. Dickinson executed to your Orator's Intestate, his bond for the payment of $200.00 dated the 24th day of June 1841. and payable one day after the date aforesaid, which was the Consideration of the purchase of said tract, or parcel of land; which writing obligatory is herewith filed as part of this bill marked (B) There is endorsed on said writing obligatory, a credit of two Mules, at $100.00, leaving a balance of $100.00, on said note, with legal interest thereon, till payment. Said Benjamin Dickinson retained the legal title to said tract or parcel of land, in himself; and by an understanding between them, at the time of ^{the} sale of said tract or parcel of land, the conveyance was not to be made, untill the whole of the purchase money of said land should be paid. Said William C. Dickinson, ~~left~~ at the time of the said purchase of said land, was put in the possession of said land, & remained in possession of it, untill his death, which occurred in the year 18 . Said William C. Dickinson left, at his death, but little personal property, and the whole has been exhausted in the payment to other creditors, of debts due to them from him,

The legal title to the land so sold has descended to the heirs at law of Benjamin Dickinson Decd. ^{unable to collect said debt} ^{at} Common law & relievable only in equity, therefore your Orator being without an adequate remedy who are Emily C, who intermarried with Absalom R, his prayer is, that the said heirs at law & administrators Dickinson, Mary E, who intermarried with Christian M, of said William C, Dickinson Decd. be made parties Deft to Francis, Martha A, who intermarried with Elbert S, this bill & be required to answer the several allegations Martin, Letitia, who intermarried with Benjamin thereof on oath, that order of publication be made as Childs, and Edwin Dickinson, who are also part of to the Absentees; that on final hearing of the Case, & the heirs at law of said William C, Dickinson Decd. decree be rendered in favor of your Orator, for the benefit of the other heirs at law of said William C, Dickinson Decd. & fit aforesaid, subjecting said land to be sold to pay the being the unknown heirs of Joseph Dickinson Decd. said ballance of said purchase money, interest & costs of the heirs at law of James Dickinson Decd.; to-wit; John, this suit; And that you will grant to your Orator such Daniel and Eliza Miller, formerly Eliza Dickinson; the other & further relief as may be consistent with equity heirs at law of Isaac Dickinson Decd.; to-wit; Daniel & good Conscience & suited to the nature of his Case, John, George Brittain & Elizabeth, his wife, formerly Eliza And your Orator will ever pray &c,

In ch

Your Commissioner Eli B. Crockett heretofore appointed by a decree in this cause has been to report that pursuant to said decree he sold ^{on the day of April 1859} as in said decree directed the land therein referred to, and Benjamin D. Martin the beneficial plaintiff became the purchaser thereof at the sum of $250.00. The amount of the plaintiffs claim your Commissioner has ascertained to be ^{at the date of sale} $220.00. His Commission amounts to $12.50 making the aggregate sum of $232.50 which shows a balance due the administrator of the heirs of William C Dickinson of $16.89. The said Martin has not yet paid your Commissioner anything and consequently he has been unable to comply with the requisition of said decree directing him to pay the said administrator the said sum of $16.89. So soon as it may be received your Commissioner will pay as directed. Respectfully Submitted
